

Make Your Own Constellation!

What's This About?

You will make patterns on black construction paper to represent constellations that can be viewed by placing them at the end of the paper towel tube.

Materials

- Black construction paper
- Paper Towel Tube OR card stock rolled into a tube with a diameter of about 1.75 inches.
- Tape to attach circles to tube
- Scissors
- Page showing patterns of constellations

What to do

1. Cover one end of the tube with black construction paper.
2. Select a constellation pattern. Cut it out and tape it on top of the construction paper.
3. Carefully poke holes in the paper, making sure that it goes through the construction paper.
4. Remove the paper with the constellation on it.
5. Hold the tube up to the light and look through the open end.
